Redstone Highlands Hosts Homecoming Week Festivities
Special events celebrate veterans, residents and surrounding communities

GREENSBURG, Pa. (May 29, 2012) – Redstone Presbyterian SeniorCare, a Christian non-profit provider of senior living communities throughout southwestern Pa., will celebrate its residents, veterans, family members and the communities it serves at each of its three campuses May 27 through May 31.

The events, known as Homecoming Week, honor and commemorate Redstone’s veteran residents with a flag ceremony and celebrate with food, activities and entertainment – all for free and open to the public.

Leading Age, an association of not-for-profit organizations dedicated to making America a better place to grow old, endorsed the week of activities. Each year, Leading Age invites organizations such as Redstone to participate in a Homecoming celebration during the last week of May. The events are an opportunity to highlight the positive contributions that organizations including Redstone make to their surrounding communities.

The Greensburg campus is hosting a “Down-Homecoming” picnic celebration with live music from the Pittsburgh Banjo Association on Tuesday, May 29 at 4 p.m., while the North Huntington campus will host “A Country Fair” complete with carnival games and live music from “Third Times a Charm” on Wednesday, May 30 at 4 p.m. Guests of the Murrysville campus will celebrate with an evening of wine and jazz including a performance by jazz pianist, Eric Barchiesi, a full-time practicing lawyer in Pittsburgh, on Thursday, May 31 at 4:30 p.m.

Redstone's Homecoming Week will conclude with a viewing of the film Age of Champions on each of its campuses. The film features a story of five competitors who sprint, leap and swim for gold at the National Senior Olympics.
