New Builder Introduced At Redstone Highlands North Huntingdon Campus

NORTH HUNTINGDON, Pa. (October 2, 2012) – Thomas Abraham Homes LTD, has been selected as the new contractor for Redstone Highlands Colonial Villa Estates at its North Huntingdon campus.

Redstone, a Christian non-profit provider of senior living communities throughout Westmoreland County, has chosen the firm to work exclusively on its villa homes which are custom built for each new resident.

“We are eager to begin working with Thomas Abraham Homes,” John Dickson, president and CEO of Redstone said. “I expect our work with them to be a collaborative process. Their astute attention to detail was a major factor that we considered in our decision process. The satisfaction of our residents is key to our success overall, and I believe this partnership will continue to maintain our high quality standards.”

Thomas Abraham Homes LTD, a manager of more than $1 billion in commercial construction projects, will work with Redstone on new construction of villas, renovations of existing spaces, land development and site utilities.

The Colonial Villa Estates opened in 2007 and is planned for 60 total homes. Amenities include the Colonial Estates Clubhouse, which is complete with a library, fitness area, fully equipped kitchen and meeting areas.
